

Best Practices For Preventing And Responding To Allegations Of Sex Abuse In Independent Schools

News headlines now require schools to revisit preventing, investigating and reporting sex abuse allegations, best practices for compliance and what it means to "do the right thing." In this lively webinar, Sara Goldsmith Schwartz will discuss the challenging issues: from steps to take before allegations arise, to investigation traps, to communication strategies, drawing on real life experiences, and outlining best practices for preventing and responding to allegations of sex abuse.
