Beyond The Curve: COVID-19 Employer Updates And Best Practices For Getting Back To Business

Please join Matthew D. Batastini and Kirsten B. White for an interactive webinar covering the latest COVID-19 updates for employers, including guidance on how to plan for safely reopening the workplace. Over the past several weeks, we have held education sessions on employer best practices for navigating the COVID-19 pandemic and its many employment challenges. We will be back on Friday, May 8, with the latest COVID-19 employer news and a discussion on considerations for getting back to work, including maintaining a safe workplace, reassuring a nervous workforce, and preparedness plans.

Topics will include:

- Families First Coronavirus Response Act Compliance
- Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") Loans
- State And Federal Unemployment Benefits
- Federal And State Workplace Safety Obligations
- Social Distancing At Work
- Workplace Policy Reboot: Remote Work; Communicable Illnesses; Paid Sick Leave; Emergency Closings And Communications; Electronic Devices, Leaves Of Absence
- Considerations For Union-Represented Workers
- Review Of Frequently Asked Questions

Who should attend?

- Human Resources Professionals
- In-House Counsel And Business Owners
- Managers (Particularly Those With HR Responsibilities)
