

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Webinar

Sara Goldsmith Schwartz and Matthew D. Batastini will explore the issues raised by Coronavirus 2019 as they are impacting independent schools.

Prioritizing the immediate actions to consider, these experienced education attorneys will share strategies for sharing and obtaining information with your community, reviewing and updating the key policies, foundational documents and plans, preparing for school breaks and school-sponsored trips, remote learning considerations and planning for next steps.

They will also address big picture recommendations for anticipating and preparing for challenges that might arise during the remainder of the academic year, such as potential campus closures.

In this interactive and lively webinar, Sara and Matt will discuss how to prepare for and handle the myriad challenges. Attendees will also have access to the Firm's Coronavirus checklist and a copy of the webinar slides.

Topics will include:

- Health Considerations (For Students, Employees, And Others)
- Crisis Management Planning And Leadership
- Student Contracts And Policies
